REGISTRATION QUESTION RESULTS

When asked: What changing environmental conditions negatively impact the installation or landscape in which you work?

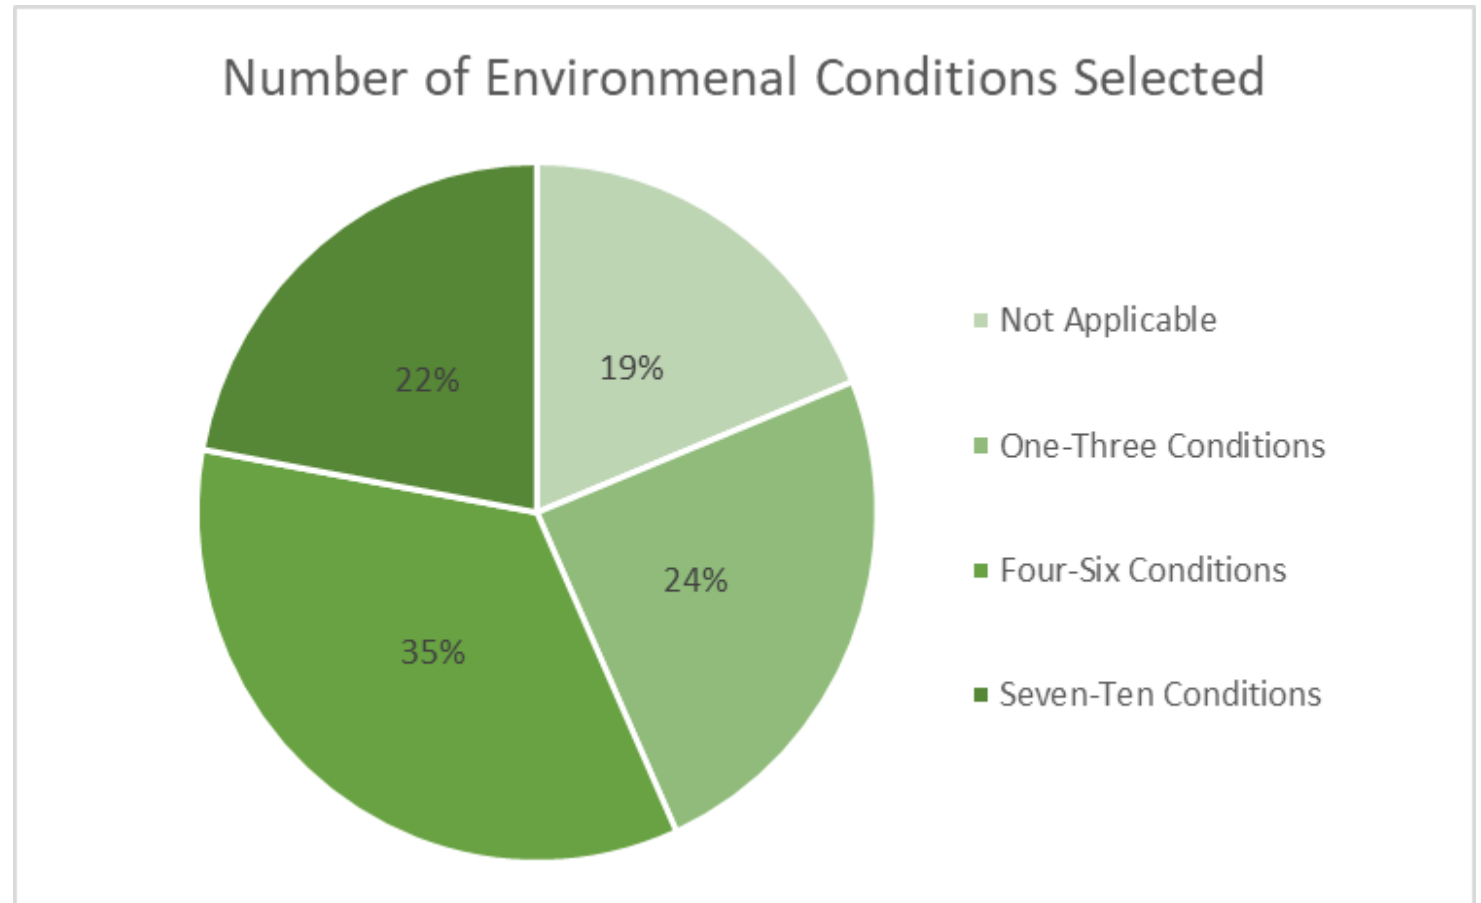

This graph shows the number of registrants who selected each environmental condition when asked the above question. Please note that registrants were able to select all conditions that applied.

Out of the total 312 registrants, 19% said none of the environmental conditions were applicable, 24% selected between one and three different conditions, 35% selected between four and six conditions, and 22% selected between seven and ten conditions. On average, registrants selected four different conditions.
