PROTECTION INTEGRATION PROGRAM

STATE FACT SHEETS | MONTANA

MONTANA

OVERVIEW

Montana received approximately $647 million in Defense spending in Fiscal Year (FY) 2021, which provides direct funding for DOD personnel salaries, defense contracts, and construction of military facilities in the state. This spending by DOD personnel, contractors, and their families creates significant economic activity, attracts related industries and investment, and generates important state and local government tax revenues.

The Readiness and Environmental Protection Integration (REPI) Program is a key tool used by DOD and its partners to protect the military's ability to train, test, and operate in the state. DOD created the REPI Program in response to the development of lands and loss of habitat in the vicinity of or affecting its installations, ranges, and airspace that can lead to restrictions or costly and inadequate training and testing alternatives. Through REPI, DOD works with state and local governments, conservation organizations, and willing private landowners to address these challenges to the military mission and the viability of DOD installations and ranges. The REPI Program has enjoyed broad bipartisan support both in the U.S. Congress and among groups representing state and local officials. Through FY 2022, DOD and its partners have spent over $9 million on REPI projects at two installations in Montana.

MILITARY PRESENCE

- Helena County Commissioners recently combined the Fort Harrison Joint Land Use Study with the Helena Vally Area plan to minimize conflicts between Fort Harrison and the cities of Helena, Townsend, and Broadwater counties. Combining the plans will allow each county to accomplish their individual housing, land use, and economic goals while protecting Fort Harrison's future training operations and economic growth.
- Fort Harrison provides facilities and ranges for the National Guard, Reserve, and active duty personnel supporting training for several types of helicopter flights and gunnery, maneuver, demolition, and live firing of weapons from small arms to tanks.
- Approximately 556 acres around Fort Harrison are currently being restored as open space in order to mitigate encroachment and provide access to the Ten Mile Creek in Helena through the Prickly Pear Land Trust and The Conservation Fund.
- Surrounding Fort Harrison is a pristine landscape within the Yellowstone-to-Yukon region where several animal species migrate between the U.S. and Canada.
